GST Council revises rates for 66 items

India's most comprehensive indirect tax reform the goods and services tax (GST) is inching towards a July 1 rollout.

GST Council at its' meeting on 11th June, revised rates on 66 items such as pickles, sauces, fruit preserves, insulin, cashew nuts, insulin, school bags, colouring books, notebooks, printers, cutlery, agarbattis and cinema tickets, following representations from industry.

Restaurants, manufacturers and traders having a turnover of up to Rs 75 lakh can avail of the composition scheme with lower rates of 5%, 2% and 1%, respectively, with lower compliance, against Rs 50 lakh previously. A GST rate of 5% will be applicable on outsourcing of manufacturing or job work in textiles and the gems and jewellery sector. Bleaching and cleaning of human hair, a big industry in Midnapore, will not face any tax.

A number of household items in the packaged food category that had been placed in the 18% bracket such as pickles, mustard sauce, ketchups, fruit preserves and sandwich toppings will now attract 12% GST.

The rate on agarbattis has been lowered to 5% from 12% proposed earlier. School bags will face a rate of 18% instead of 28%, exercise books will attract 12% instead of 18% and colouring books will be exempt instead of 12% proposed earlier. Steel cutlery will attract 12% instead of 18% and computer printers 18% instead of 28%. Fly ash bricks and blocks will attract 12%.

Movie tickets costing below Rs 100 will now attract 18% GST while 28% will continue for those over Rs 100. "Consumers will benefit from the reduction in rates," Jaitley said, adding that states can refund state GST on regional cinema but there cannot be a centralised exemption.
